

MARCH 2018

STEEPLE TALK

The names and ages of the 14 students and 3 school staff who lost their lives on Feb. 14th in Parkland, Florida are listed below. The numbers by their name correspond to the photos above.

1. Alyssa Alhadeff, 14
2. Martin Anguiano, 14
3. Scott Beigel, 35, Geography teacher
4. Nicholas Dworet, 17
5. Aaron Feis, 37, Football Coach
6. Jaime Guttenberg, 14
7. Chris Hixon, 49, Athletic Director
8. Luke Hoyer, 15
9. Cara Loughran, 14
10. Gina Montalto, 14
11. Joaquin Oliver, 17
12. Alaina Petty, 14
13. Meadow Pollack, 18
14. Helena Ramsay, 17
15. Alexander Schachter, 14
16. Carmen Schentrup, 16
17. Peter Wang, 15

I didn't know them of course. But I took my time selecting their photos off the internet, cropping them, arranging them, and then putting their names in alphabetical order. My fingers lightly hovered over keys to type their names — names that mothers and fathers, sisters and brothers, grandparents and friends, church members and pastors — have been weeping over.

The steady drumbeat of gun violence carries on. Most days we don't notice because it's just one here, two there. These mass atrocities garner some attention for a bit, but then our focus shifts — because the world is full and life is busy. And our society seems incapable of addressing the national scourge of gun violence that claims the lives of 30,000 Americans each year.

Sin is usually thought of as an act of commission — something done that is wrong. But there is also the sin of apathy, of surrendering to cynicism and defeatism. So on behalf of the session, I invite the congregation to a public screening of the PCUSA produced 50-minute film titled “Trigger — The Ripple Effect of Gun Violence” at BRPC at 7:00 p.m. on Friday, March 23rd. We'll have refreshments and conversation afterwards. The next day, join me and others for the “March for our Lives” — the Kansas City counterpart to the national march on Washington organized by the student survivors from Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School.

Perhaps we could consider giving up apathy and resignation for Lent.

Peace and grace, Pastor Pat

See p. 5 for full Lenten Calendar of Activities

Session at Work

Have you been enjoying our Lenten Worship Booklet as much as I? When Pastor Pat first mentioned it to the worship committee last year, I envisioned a loosely done booklet of half pages, but it became a beautiful booklet that will serve us not only during Lent, but any time we wish to use it for reflection. Thank you to all who wrote an article. Thanks especially Jana Henderson for reviewing each article and putting each in proper format and Pastor Pat did the final formatting, choosing the appropriate pictures for each article even though he was on vacation.

The Session was disappointed in having to change the date of our February meeting due to the icy weather which meant we had to postpone the dinner with Rev. Michael Brooks of Zion Grove Missionary Baptist Church and the leadership of their church. It remains our plan to work together for better race relations starting with our churches and progressing from there. We'll keep the congregation posted on that effort.

When the session met this past Thursday, a major topic of discussion was a request from Melody Cox, director of Classical Conversations ("CC") -- a faith based organization that supports home-schooled children -- to meet at BRPC once a week starting September 2018. Under the CC model, all the students with parents and teachers gather once a week at a location for instruction and group activities. They need more space than their current location provides. The maximum number of students at our building would be 48, all of elementary age. Melody assured the session the building would be left in better condition after each day's use. CC would plan to make an annual financial gift to the congregation and also expressed a willingness to pitch in on BRPC clean up days and in other ways. Anyone interested in learning more about Classical Conversations can visit their website at www.classicalconversations.com. The students have above average grades and higher admittance rates to college than do public school students.

The session has encouraged the use of our building for worthwhile programs. This session agreed this would be good use of our space providing there is not a significant increase in our insurance costs. As I'm writing this article, elders are checking on both the BRPC and CC insurance policies to ensure that the coverage is sufficient and whether our rates would increase or not (and if so, by how much).

The committees all have been working hard this young year. Please read the reports from each committee in this newsletter. Property has been put to the test with numerous minor plumbing problems. We all should be grateful to our "resident plumber," Bobby Neal for his expertise. Our Fellowship committee was extremely thankful he fixed the water to the dishwasher just prior to the Grow Conference meal.

(Session at Work continued)

Please plan to attend the potluck dinner on March 11. Not only will we get to meet other members of our flocks, but the moderators of Fellowship, Debbie Jones and Missions and Outreach, Marsha Elbasani, have a great program planned in which we'll thank all the volunteers who help make BRPC run!

*Yours in Christ,
Avis Odenbaugh, Clerk of Session*

Deacon Report

The BRPC returning and new Deacons are looking forward to serving our church and our flocks in 2018 to continue to Build Relationships with People in Christ.

Here is a little about how the Deacons serve BRPC. The team on duty for the month arrives early each Sunday to open the building, turn on lights and heat or cool air, make coffee, and prepare many other things in the sanctuary to make worship a comfortable experience. After the congregation has gathered for Sunday School, worship, and coffee fellowship, the Deacon team turns off, straightens up, and closes everything again. The Deacons also meet monthly to share, discuss, and plan.

Along with Sunday morning activities, the Deacons are keeping in touch with their flock, recognizing birthday's and anniversary's, and any other joys or concerns their flock members wish to share with them. We invite our flock members to join us on Sunday, March 11th after worship for a potluck luncheon. The flocks will sit together to enjoy good food and visiting with each other — and we will celebrate all the volunteers who help carry out the ministry of Christ at BRPC! We hope to see you there!

The Gospel of John

A Lenten Journey at Blue Ridge Presbyterian Church

We welcome everyone to share in the spiritual journey through Lent this year at BRPC as we study, pray, preach, fast and immerse ourselves in the gospel of John. There are 6 parts to this year's Lenten experience at BRPC:

The BRPC Lenten Devotional.

We are grateful to everyone who has contributed or supported the creation of the BRPC Lenten Devotional. If you do not have a copy, please request one from the office or Pastor Pat. The daily scripture, reflections by a BRPC member or friend of the congregation, and prayer have been a meaningful part of our daily Lenten walk.

The John Lenten Sunday School Class.

Each Sunday, Pastor Pat is leading an adult Sunday School class at 9:30 a.m. on the Gospel of John. The class has already examined "Who is John?" and "How does John and the other gospels compare?" In upcoming weeks, we will probe texts that are not covered in the worship service and we'll benefit from rich discussion. Join us!

Fasting. The congregation is invited, health permitting, to share in the Lenten discipline of fasting. Pastor Pat selects each Wednesday for his fast where he'll drink plenty of fluids but take just one meal. Each person can follow the regimen of their own choosing. The point is to help us remember the trials of our Lord during this time.

Special Meals & Worship. We will experience two special times of gathering in the coming weeks:

Wed., March 7th — Service for Healing. We will gather at 7:00 p.m. for a contemplative service for healing. We will pray for the healing of our bodies, healing in our relationships and healing in our world. In the ancient Christian tradition, those who wish may receive an anointing with oil.

Thurs, March 29th — Maundy Thursday & Tenebrae. Join us at 6:00 p.m. in Fellowship Hall for our Maundy Thursday baked potato meal. Then we'll gather at 7:15 p.m. in the sanctuary for our Tenebrae Service as we follow our Lord to the Cross.

Good Friday Vigil. Like last year, we will organize a prayer vigil that will extend from 7 p.m. on Maundy Thursday thru 7 p.m. on Good Friday. Please sign up for your spot on the main bulletin board in the narthex.

Sunday Worship. Join us for worship as Pastor Pat preaches from the Gospel of John. Participate in worship which will lift your mind, body and soul as we discover anew what it means to BELIEVE that Jesus Christ is the Messiah, the Son of God! Coming sermons:

March 4th: "Life"

March 11th: "The Father and the Son"

March 18th: "The Son and the Spirit"

March 25: "Conflict & Decision in the Gospel of John"

Easter Sunday: "Glory"

April 8th: "The Community of Christ"

The deadline to order Easter Lilies to remember loved ones is March 4th for $12 each. Flowers can be taken home April 1st or donated. Thank you for helping to adorn the sanctuary with trumpeting lilies for Easter!

On February 25, Troop 1428 joined the members of Blue Ridge Presbyterian for the annual Scout Sunday service. It is our honor to serve all of you as we meet together for worship and teaching. Thank you for supporting our troop as we seek to instill scouting's values in this generation of young men.

On Saturday, March 3 we will be honoring Andrew Nave, Troop 1428's newest Eagle Scout. Andrew has been part of our troop for 10 years, joining in second grade as a wolf cub. Last summer he completed his Eagle project, landscaping improvements, at Heartland Center for Behavioral Change, a non-profit certified by Missouri Department of Mental Health that has helped tens of thousands of people begin a new life free of drugs and alcohol since 1982. Scoutmaster Ben Stallings has this to say about Andrew. "Andrew has been a great young man to have in our troop. He has a good handle on his life and his future. His quiet demeanor hides a smart, funny, perceptive leader. I'm glad to know him!"

On April 14 Troop 1428 will host our 4th annual Custom Car & Hot Rod Show! This year's event will be at Graceway Baptist Church at 55th & Blue Ridge Cutoff, and promises to be the biggest and best yet. New this year will be a community chili cook-off, and YOU are invited to take part. More information on the car show and registering for the cook-off will be coming soon.

A laugh a day keeps the blahs away!

Paul, a little boy was in church one Sunday with his mother, when he started feeling sick.

"Mommy," he said, "can we leave now?"

"No" the mother replied.

"Well, I think I have to throw up!"

"Then go out the front door and around to the back of the church and throw up behind a bush."

After about sixty seconds, Paul returned to his seat.

"Did you throw up?" Mom asked.

"Yes."

"How could you have gone all the way to the back of the church and returned so quickly?"

"I didn't have to go out of the church, Mommy. They have a box next to the front door that says, 'For the Sick'."

Property

Recycling

Please share the following information:

- NO plastic bags of any kind – please empty recycling and dispose plastic bags in trash
- NO trash, household items, Styrofoam
- Cardboard boxes need to be torn down
- Shredded paper is now ACCEPTED (plastic bags need to be emptied!)

If the bin appears full, please consider bringing your items back after Wednesday mornings when our recycling is emptied. When the lids cannot close completely, we have plastic bags, or there are any items on the ground, BRPC incurs a stiff penalty. Thank you for supporting our BRPC recycling efforts!

Building Security

All committees, groups, and individuals using BRPC should check not only lights and thermostats but also doors to ensure they have been locked and CLOSED SECURELY. Please double check that the front north doors close securely and the kitchen door downstairs is locked (it has a doorknob that can be manually unlocked). Also, please keep all valuables such as keys, purses, etc. with you at all times. Thank you.

Building Request Forms

Please remember (committees and individuals) to submit a building use request form for an event that is not regularly scheduled. This helps ensure that all parties have equal opportunity for facility use without a conflict. A light green binder in the office shows all events that have been approved for the calendar. Feel free to reference this book as well as the paper calendar. When filling out a building request, please mark your event on the paper calendar in pencil with the word "pending." We review building requests at each meeting; barring any conflict with a prior request, the event will be approved. Thank you.

Maintenance Needs

We strive to address maintenance needs as they are observed. If you see a problem, please write the concern with your name and date and place in my mailbox. Thank you.

Bobby Neal, Property Committee Moderator

Fellowship

Mark your calendars please for Sunday, March 11. The Fellowship Committee is hosting our annual Deacons' Flock Potluck dinner following Worship in the Fellowship Hall. An added bonus program will be a recognition of volunteers. It takes a village to raise a church ( a little variation there) and we'd just like to say thank you! Fellowship committee will provide the main course and we are asking you all to provide the rest. So please prepare a salad, vegetable, or dessert that will serve 10-12 people and come to the potluck. You'll meet your Deacon, eat well, and have a chance to thank those who have spent their free hours, past and present, to make our church work.

As always please watch for your name for Coffee Fellowship, it's a huge part of our hospitality and communication. We thank you all so much.

*Debbie Jones,
Fellowship Committee Moderator*

Grace Notes

Recently something delightful and wonderful happened.

It was a simple act of kindness and though simple it yielded results beyond expectation. The ripples on a pond illustration is really true; when I experience a drop of unexpected kindness in my life it continues a reaction that effects long beyond the moment of blessing. A dear member of our church had the misfortune of removing a large assortment of boxes filled with old books and papers needing to be recycled from my office this week. Suddenly there was a space vacant in my otherwise disaster of an office. There were banners, and rocks and carts, and bolts of fabrics and even more boxes everywhere else, but now there was a small spot of vacant space, redemption had happened. In the twinkle of an eye and minimal effort I suddenly was gifted the energy to do the work needed to clean up and organize the remaining 75% of the office. The blessed souls who come once a week or so to clean will now be able to vacuum the floor without fear, I can meet with people or even have a small gathering now, or you could come and visit if you'd like... now... It may take a while for me to clear off my desk but I know if I hang around BRPC someone will drop a stone of kindness in the lake of my heart and I'll have all the energy I need to take on the world.

I know the love of God because I know the members of this church. It is a joy to be in continual moments of grace as part of this community. It is my prayer that each note our choir sings and each peal of our Chancel Chimes will be like small pebbles touching your heart. Ripples of kindness that will build in you life for the journey.

*Grace Cox-Johnson,
Director of Music*

OWLS

Regardless of your age, if you are available from noon to 2:00 pm on the third Wednesday of the month, you will want to put OWLS on your calendar. We have an exciting variety of programs planned for the future. And, of course, we always begin with a delicious home-cooked meal for $5.00 per person.

Sign up the narthex!

March 21st: The New Harmony Handful will perform under the direction of our very own Jim Bagby. Whether you call them a very large quartet or a lively small chorus, you can always call these men who come from across the metro area entertaining and inspiring!

April 18th: OSCARS party! Icy conditions caused us to cancel this event in February so we will save our glitz and glam for April.

May 16th: Quilt display and presentation by Robyn Gragg (Sandy Moore's friend) who designs & makes all of her quilts and has won numerous awards. Her 6 quilts on creation are just wonderful as well as others she has made.

June 20th: "Calendar Girls", Linda Mann and Jennifer Mitchell, will perform songs representing every month of the year on piano and violin. You don't want to miss this dynamic duo.

July 18th: The Kansas City Zoo-mobile will arrive at 12:45. Zoo keepers will bring several live animals to tell us about. So, plan now to attend and bring any children in your lives, too. Children's meals will be 1/2 price ($2.50 each) This was a very popular intergenerational activity last year.
